RG104 Box 143 January 1887

Treasury Department,

BUREAU OF THE MINT,

Washington, D. C., January 29 , *188*7 .

Sir:

Your letter of the 28th instant, with enclosure, was doubtless written under a misapprehension of what was requested by the Bureau on the 27th January, namely "a statement of the medal branch of the work of your mint, from the authorization to strike medals to final payment, including the basis for computa--tion of 'loss'; " or, in other words, a memorandum from the Coiner (possibly Engraver and Chief Clerk also) of the several requirements of the mint in the matter of striking medals, and which should show the method of computing the item of "loss", if any, mode of reimbursement and schedule of charges, with the grounds for each.

Very respectfully,

Director of the Mint.

Hon. Daniel M. Fox,

Superintendent U.S. Mint,

Philadelphia.

P.S. The above should be transmitted as early as practicable.

Treas'y Dept.
Washington. D.C.
January 29. 1887

James. P. Kimball.
Director.

Letter of 28" was written under a misapprehension of what the Bureau required, — which is a memo. from the Coiner of the several requirements in the matter of stocking medals.; - also, method of computing item of "Loss" mode of reimbursement & Schedule of charges with grounds for each.

RECEIVED
JAN 31 1887
U.S. MINT, PHILA.

Ans. 2, 2, 87.

NARA RG104, Entry 1, Box 143

[Abstract:] Letter of 28" was written under a misapprehension of what the Bureau required…

Treasury Department,
Bureau of the Mint,
Washington, D.C.,
January 29, 1887

Sir:

Your letter of the 28th instant, with enclosure, was doubtless written under a misapprehension of what was requested by the Bureau on the 27th January, namely "a statement of the medal branch of the work of your mint, from the authorization to strike medals to final payment, including the basis for computation of 'loss';" or, in other words, a memorandum from the Coiner (possibly Engraver and Chief Clerk also) of the several requirements of the mint in the matter of striking medals, and which should show the method of computing the item of "loss", if any, mode of reimbursement and schedule of charges, with the grounds for each.

Very respectfully,
James P. Kimball
Director of the Mint.

Hon. Daniel M. Fox,
Superintendent U.S. Mint,
Philadelphia.

P.S. The above should be transmitted as early as practicable.